Exploring Together the Mystery of Being a Changing Self with Many Parts

for girls ages 11-14

In a four-evening class, in keeping with four phases of the moon, cast and open a circle, call the four directions, discover your allies, choose your circle name, make a personal charm, and find your own goddesses using story, art, chant, poetry, costume, and theater.

Meets four Tuesdays, 6:30-9:30 pm, July 26, August 2, 9, and 16 at the FAD Pad (see below). $160; scholarships available.

Class is limited to eight young women. Attendees are requested to attend all four evening meetings.

Mary Ellen Hill, M.A., Spirituality and Geo-Justice, long-time teacher and storyteller, co-founder of drama camp "Puppets and Pie," currently runs Adoptees Connecting Classes and Harry Potter Fantasy camps at her FAD (Fun, Art & Drama) Pad in Oakland, off the Hwy. 580 Edwards Avenue Exit. She has practiced and created earth-based rituals since 1987. www.mehstories.com

Carolyn McVickar Edwards, M.Ed. is an educational therapist who runs Oakland-based Turning Point Educational Services. The Moon Circle extends her work to help students to self-advocate by guiding girls to develop right-brained tools for growing awareness, acceptance, and action. She is author of The Storyteller's Goddess and The Return of the Light. She has practiced and led goddess-centered ritual since 1984. www.carolynmcvickaredwards.com
